

HEURISTIC EVALUATION REPORT

Evaluator : Kishore G

App Studied: Headspace (Existing)

Solution : Student Meditation App
(Original Redesign)

HEURISTIC 1 – Visibility of System Status

Existing Problem:

Headspace does not show users their progress or stress history on the home screen.

Severity: HIGH

Our Redesign Fix:

Home screen (Screen 2) displays the user's last session result – showing exact stress percentage released. User always knows their progress status.

HEURISTIC 2 – Match Between System and Real World

Existing Problem:

Headspace uses meditation jargon like "Mindfulness Packs" and "SOS Sessions" that feel unfamiliar to college students.

Severity: MEDIUM

Our Redesign Fix:

Language is simple and relatable: "Immediate Relief" and "What's Your Mood?" – words that a stressed student would naturally think and say.

HEURISTIC 3 – User Control & Freedom

Existing Problem:

Headspace forces users through long onboarding surveys before accessing any content.

Severity: HIGH

Our Redesign Fix:

Users land directly on the home screen. Two clear buttons give instant control — stressed users tap once and session begins. No setup required.

HEURISTIC 4 — Consistency & Standards

Existing Problem:

Headspace's visual design uses orange and corporate tones that feel inconsistent with the calm, youthful energy the app claims to represent.

Severity: MEDIUM

Our Redesign Fix:

Consistent dark indigo and soft lavender color system across all screens. Every screen feels like the same calm, Gen Z world.

HEURISTIC 5 — Error Prevention

Existing Problem:

Headspace sends push notifications even when users are already calm — causing irritation and potential uninstalls.

Severity: MEDIUM

Our Redesign Fix:

The Silence Principle — our app tracks stress levels and only sends notifications when the user genuinely needs support. Peaceful users are left in peace.

HEURISTIC 6 — Aesthetic & Minimalist Design

Existing Problem:

Headspace home screen shows 6+ options simultaneously — too much visual noise for a stressed user who needs calm immediately.

Severity: HIGH

Our Redesign Fix:

Radical minimalism on home screen. Only 2 buttons. Breathing space. Large meditating animation as the emotional anchor. Nothing else competes for attention.

SUMMARY TABLE

Problem	Severity	Fixed?
Progress hidden	High	Yes
Complex language	Med	Yes
Long onboarding	High	Yes
Wrong visual tone	Med	Yes
Bad notifications	Med	Yes
Too many options	High	Yes

CONCLUSION:

The Student Meditation App redesign addresses all 6 critical usability issues identified in existing apps, creating a focused, emotionally intelligent experience designed specifically for college students.
